

Prof. Solin
Director: Center for Materials Innovation
Washington University in St. Louis
St. Louis, MO 63130

Dear Prof. Solin,

I hereby authorize the CMI Recharge Center to charge my grants in monthly invoices for the below specified researcher under the specified terms in this user agreement and the Business Plan for CMI Recharge Center.

The CMI is authorized to only charge my grants user fees accrued by (my student, post doc, collaborator, or myself; henceforth termed "CMI User") _____ over the period of time beginning on _____ and expiring on _____ at rates specified in the rate schedule for CMI Users of Level __ for the following instruments:

Please check one: User fees will be paid using

- institutional (University) or sponsored research (externally derived) funds.

CMI Users can operate a particular CMI instrument only after receiving a license for that instrument by demonstrating proficiency in operation of said instrument. Maintaining a valid license to operate a particular instrument is contingent on compliance with the established user policies for said instrument. CMI Users can only operate (and have access to) an instrument for which they are licensed while they have an active (i.e., non-expired) CMI User Agreement. The user agreement can be renewed (or modified) anytime by submitting a new CMI User Agreement Letter, a copy of a valid Washington University Environmental Health & Safety Certificate of Training that was issued to the CMI User, and a Laboratory Specific Training Handout signed by the CMI User.

Sincerely yours,
